

About Bedsonline

- Formed in Spain in 2004.
- Distributes a product portfolio of more than 120,000 hotels, 12,000 activities and 20,000 transfer routes and 142,000 rental car products available from 185 different countries.
- Leading global provider of online accommodation and ancillary products – such as excursions, tickets and transfer routes.
- Exclusively caters to travel agencies, worldwide.

A global footprint

- Distributes accommodation and ancillary products for more than 30,000 agencies in 30 source markets, including Spain, Mexico and the UK.
- Main fast-growing markets FY 15/16: Colombia (+200%) Japan (+180%), Chile (+95%), China (+35%), Philippines (+30%) and United States (+25%).
- Main source markets FY 15/16: Spain, Mexico and UK.
- Main destinations FY 15/16: Spain, United States and Mexico.

Keys to success

- Exclusively for travel agents.
- Easy-to-use booking tool.
- Portfolio of directly contracted product
 - contracted through local teams focused on contracting globally, allowing high availability, competitive prices and a high level of client satisfaction.
- Local operation with global presence.
The commercial team and the call center are 100% local, aimed at the client's needs.
- Customer service team with more than 400 professionals with 24/7 support in 20 different languages.
- Clear focus on distribution, with double digit growth outperforming the market.
- Bedsonline strategic principles are investment in human teams, technological platforms and distribution.

The future

Bedsonline's expansion plans for the following five years include:

- Maintaining a clear focus on expansion into the Americas such as the United States, Canada, Brazil, Colombia, Peru, Costa Rica and, in particular, Mexico.
- Driving growth in South East Asia, in particular in China, where Bedsonline plans to triple the local team over the next three years.
- Significantly increasing the number of products with exclusive conditions for clients.
- Consolidating its position as a strategic provider for travel agencies worldwide.

